

DAILY NEWS

SATURDAY - - - APRIL 25, 1879

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, April 25.
For the South Atlantic States, failing breeze, southwest winds, partly cloudy weather and occasional rains and slight changes in the temperature.

Tell us not in mourn full numbers, Man in life, succeed can't tumbler, When the empty row of tumblers Marks the way that man doth go.
—Whitehall Times

Local Briefs.

Spring overcoats still hang on.

—A Cotton factory for Raleigh.

—Thin flannels are not ripe enough to pull yet.

—The weather continues to be—the subject of remarks.

—The New Orleans Picayune spells
"danger,"—T.e.x.-s."

—The Euzelian Hall at Wake Forest College is to be frescoed.

—835 lbs represents the avoirdupois of one of the leading firms of this city.

—Revivals are going on in the colored churches of east Raleigh.

—"Strawberries are ripe, and baby shall have some."

—The peach crop about Ridgeway is not totally destroyed. The average may be said to be fair.

—Finley, Roberts & Co., Baltimore, took out a Drummers license Thunday.

—Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. Wisiger, & Co., Richmond, Va.

—Religious revivals are in progress all over the State, and the suners are being stirred up mightily.

—If you do not want to be robbed of your good name, do not have it printed on your umbrella.

—Flowers are setting their accounts, with a view to "bursting up" before long.

—Some people think they have liver complaint when they merely have indigestion from eating too much of it fried.

—Now though the poor but honest young man consider how he may, persuade his uncle to take straw bail for his Summer hat.

—The Chinese are exceedingly dry in their diet. They even dry their oysters, whereas Americans eat them while they are still alive.

—"There is always a straw in the top" of a strawberry tax box, but only the top gets there. It isn't very far to the bottom for unsuccessful aspirants for bail.

—Special meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge to-night at Masonic Hall for work in the 3rd degree. Members of Hiram Lodge are requested to attend.

—Charlotte is ahead this year, having received the finest watermelon. It came from Charleston, and weighed 20 pounds and was in fine flavor.

—Skirts are noticeably short in front, giving an excellent opportunity to exhibit fine hose and handsome slippers.

—The question of starting a tobacco factory in this city will be presented in a few days in the Legislature. Full information will be given and it is confidently believed the business men of the city will be prompt to take hold of it.

—The Columbus Insurance and Banking Co., have taken out a license to carry on the Insurance business in this State. Messrs. Cameron, Hay & Co., are the general agents.

—A beautiful Insurance sign representing the Va. Fire & Marine Ins. Co. has just been received at Messrs. Cameron, Hay & Co., and the design and workmanship is highly artistic and presents a very handsome sketch of the Pocahontas-Capt. Smith scene.

—The subscription list of the Daily News has been gradually increasing since the 1st of April. It is particularly noticeable in this city. Nearly fifty new city subscribers, have been added during the past three weeks.

—The firm of W. H. Morris & Co., is dissolved by mutual consent. Mr.
W. H. Morris, a young man of business on Fayetteville Street and Mr.
John Morris will occupy the old Frappey, on Fayetteville and Davis Streets. Notice of same among new advertisements.

—Equitability must be said to have gained a fair foot in the city. The great form of the young ladies and well dressed carriage look to the times of the American. Young gentlemen are laying by their earnings and for the present are practicing on saw horses, and when the tournament fairly opens the display of horsemanship will be fruitful to contemplate.

—The religious mania has struck the Wilmington darkies bad and must have attained a high point. It is evident to judge by a paragraph in yesterday's Review, which says: "The religious excitement has again broken out among the colored people of this city and is spreading like wildfire.
Last night we saw it in the most modest and in a house on Campbell, between Seventh and Eighth streets, the congregation began shouting and stampeding and away went the girders of the house, which caused some little excitement among those in the building."

—Edenton Street Revival.

The revival at Edenton Street, M. E. church is gaining in interest each night.
The attendance is very large and the number of seekers increases each meeting. Many have made a profession of faith and are seeking baptism for prayers of Christian people. Mr. Moon is doing a great work and her labors are being blessed in a large degree.

The Raleigh Jobbing Trade.

The enterprise of the firm of L. H.
Yeargan, Petty & Jones, is well remarking on. They are leading out in the development of the jobbing trade of this city, from Guilford County to the whole State.

The Pope has created five new cardinals, among them the famous Dr. Newman, the great English divine and scriptural scholar. The work is most excellently carried on and is giving great good. Quite a number are serious on the subject of religion and several have made a profession of it. Miss Painter is accomplishing a great good and is receiving the warm support of the Christian people in the high-hood of the church.

Henry Ward Beecher is about to lecture in Atlanta. It is not believed that his reception will be such as to make him desire to visit that city again.

It is gratifying to be able to note the unmatained progress which is being made in the wholesale market. The enterprise such houses as A. Creech, and the firm above named is telling in the rapid development of the dry good trade and is having a fine effect in all branches of business in the city.

The Quaker Preacher Last Night.

Mr. Rufus King preached at Edenton street M. E. church last night. He is a Quaker from Indiana, and is on his way to Canada to conduct the missionary work there. Mr. King lived in Edenton several years, and was converted in the same church which he preached in last night. He was not a Quaker originally, but joined the order since he left this city. He intones while preaching and makes a deep and impression on his hearers.

Ten-Dollar Bonds.

Secretary Sherman announces that it is the desire of the department to give every citizen of the United States an opportunity to invest in ten-dollar refunding coupons. The interest is 5 per cent. and will be converted in the same currency at the end of sixty days, or already made for four per cent. bonds sufficient to cover the 10-40 bonds then outstanding.
If any, will be accepted.

Personal.

Mr. Duncan Stowe, formerly of Raleigh, is now representing a Baltimore house in that city.

Rev. Father White has gone to Springfield, Mass., to solicit subscriptions for the erection of a new Catholic church in this city.

Death of an Estimable Lady.

At Wake Forest College yesterday morning at the residence of Prof. Mills, her son-in-law, the death of Mrs. C. A.
Lewis occurred. She was the widow of the late Jno. W. Lewis, M. D., formerly of this city, and the wife of Prof. W. H.
Battle. She was most highly esteemed by all who knew her and her death will be mourned by a large number of friends.

Large Sale of N. C. Medicinal Plants.

The Bakersville Republican says: "The firm of Wallace Bros. of Statesville, sell a variety of herbs, including the following: wormwood, mint, ginseng, and roots, &c. &c. &c."

—Revivals are going on in the colored churches of east Raleigh.

—"Strawberries are ripe, and baby
shall have some."

—The peach crop about Ridgeway
is not totally destroyed. The average
may be said to be fair.

—Finley, Roberts & Co., Baltimore,
took out a Drummers license Thun-
day.

—Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. Wisiger, & Co., Richmond, Va.

—Religious revivals are in progress all over the State, and the suners
are being stirred up mightily.

—If you do not want to be robbed
of your good name, do not have it
printed on your umbrella.

—Flowers are setting their accounts, with a view to "bursting up"
before long.

—Some people think they have liver complaint when they merely have
indigestion from eating too much of it
fried.

—Now though the poor but honest
young man consider how he may, persuade his uncle to take straw bail for his Summer hat.

—The Chinese are exceedingly dry
in their diet. They even dry their
oysters, whereas Americans eat them
while they are still alive.

—"There is always a straw in the
top" of a strawberry tax box, but only the
top gets there. It isn't very far to the bottom for unsuccessful aspirants for bail.

—Special meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge to-night at Masonic Hall for work in the 3rd degree. Members of Hiram Lodge are requested to attend.

—Charlotte is ahead this year, having received the finest watermelon. It came from Charleston, and weighed 20
pounds and was in fine flavor.

—Skirts are noticeably short in
front, giving an excellent opportunity
to exhibit fine hose and handsome
slippers.

—The question of starting a tobacco
factory in this city will be presented in a few days in the Legislature. Full information will be given and it is confidently
believed the business men of the city
will be prompt to take hold of it.

—The Columbus Insurance and
Banking Co., have taken out a license to carry on the Insurance business in this State. Messrs. Cameron, Hay & Co.,
are the general agents.

—A beautiful Insurance sign representing the Va. Fire & Marine Ins. Co.
has just been received at Messrs. Cameron, Hay & Co., and the design and
workmanship is highly artistic and presents a very handsome sketch of the Pocahontas-Capt. Smith scene.

—The subscription list of the Daily News has been gradually increasing
since the 1st of April. It is particularly noticeable in this city. Nearly fifty new city subscribers, have been
added during the past three weeks.

—The firm of W. H. Morris & Co.,
is dissolved by mutual consent. Mr.
W. H. Morris, a young man of business on Fayetteville Street and Mr.
John Morris will occupy the old Frappey, on Fayetteville and Davis Streets. Notice of same among new advertisements.

—Equitability must be said to have
gained a fair foot in the city. The
great form of the young ladies
and well dressed carriage look to the
times of the American. Young gentle-
men are laying by their earnings and
for the present are practicing on saw
horses, and when the tournament fairly
opens the display of horsemanship will
be fruitful to contemplate.

—Edenton Street Revival.

The revival at Edenton Street, M. E.
church is gaining in interest each night.
The attendance is very large and the
number of seekers increases each meeting. Many have made a profession
of faith and are seeking baptism for
prayers of Christian people. Mr. Moon
is doing a great work and her labors
are being blessed in a large degree.

Henry Ward Beecher is about to
lecture in Atlanta. It is not believed
that his reception will be such as to make him desire to visit that city again.

It is gratifying to be able to note
the unmatained progress which is being
made in the wholesale market. The enterprise such houses as A. Creech, and the
firm above named is telling in the rapid
development of the dry good trade and
is having a fine effect in all branches of business in the city.

—The Quaker Preacher Last Night.

Mr. Rufus King preached at Edenton
street M. E. church last night. He is a Quaker from Indiana, and is on his
way to Canada to conduct the missionary work there. Mr. King lived in Edenton several years, and was converted
in the same church which he preached in last night. He was not a Quaker originally, but joined the order
since he left this city. He intones
while preaching and makes a deep and
impression on his hearers.

—The Quaker Preacher Last Night.

Mr. Rufus King preached at Edenton
street M. E. church last night. He is a Quaker from Indiana, and is on his
way to Canada to conduct the missionary work there. Mr. King lived in Edenton several years, and was converted
in the same church which he preached in last night. He was not a Quaker originally, but joined the order
since he left this city. He intones
while preaching and makes a deep and
impression on his hearers.

—The Quaker Preacher Last Night.

Mr. Rufus King preached at Edenton
street M. E. church last night. He is a Quaker from Indiana, and is on his
way to Canada to conduct the missionary work there. Mr. King lived in Edenton several years, and was converted
in the same church which he preached in last night. He was not a Quaker originally, but joined the order
since he left this city. He intones
while preaching and makes a deep and
impression on his hearers.

—The Quaker Preacher Last Night.

Mr. Rufus King preached at Edenton
street M. E. church last night. He is a Quaker from Indiana, and is on his
way to Canada to conduct the missionary work there. Mr. King lived in Edenton several years, and was converted
in the same church which he preached in last night. He was not a Quaker originally, but joined the order
since he left this city. He intones
while preaching and makes a deep and
impression on his hearers.

—The Quaker Preacher Last Night.

Mr. Rufus King preached at Edenton
street M. E. church last night. He is a Quaker from Indiana, and is on his
way to Canada to conduct the missionary work there. Mr. King lived in Edenton several years, and was converted
in the same church which he preached in last night. He was not a Quaker originally, but joined the order
since he left this city. He intones
while preaching and makes a deep and
impression on his hearers.

—The Quaker Preacher Last Night.

Mr. Rufus King preached at Edenton
street M. E. church last night. He is a Quaker from Indiana, and is on his
way to Canada to conduct the missionary work there. Mr. King lived in Edenton several years, and was converted
in the same church which he preached in last night. He was not a Quaker originally, but joined the order
since he left this city. He intones
while preaching and makes a deep and
impression on his hearers.

—The Quaker Preacher Last Night.

Mr. Rufus King preached at Edenton
street M. E. church last night. He is a Quaker from Indiana, and is on his
way to Canada to conduct the missionary work there. Mr. King lived in Edenton several years, and was converted
in the same church which he preached in last night. He was not a Quaker originally, but joined the order
since he left this city. He intones
while preaching and makes a deep and
impression on his hearers.

—The Quaker Preacher Last Night.

Mr. Rufus King preached at Edenton
street M. E. church last night. He is a Quaker from Indiana, and is on his
way to Canada to conduct the missionary work there. Mr. King lived in Edenton several years, and was converted
in the same church which he preached in last night. He was not a Quaker originally, but joined the order
since he left this city. He intones
while preaching and makes a deep and
impression on his hearers.

—The Quaker Preacher Last Night.

Mr. Rufus King preached at Edenton
street M. E. church last night. He is a Quaker from Indiana, and is on his
way to Canada to conduct the missionary work there. Mr. King lived in Edenton several years, and was converted
in the same church which he preached in last night. He was not a Quaker originally, but joined the order
since he left this city. He intones
while preaching and makes a deep and
impression on his hearers.